Q1. You need to implement an identity solution that allows external partners to access your Microsoft 365 applications. Which feature should you use?

A. Azure AD B2C

B. Azure AD B2B

C. Conditional Access

D. Identity Governance

Answer: B. Azure AD B2B

Q2. What is the primary purpose of Azure AD Conditional Access?

A. Automating user provisioning

B. Enforcing access policies based on conditions

C. Resetting user passwords

D. Monitoring user behavior

Answer: B. Enforcing access policies based on conditions

Q3. Which feature allows you to manage privileged accounts and limit their access duration in Azure AD?

A. Identity Protection

B. Azure AD B2C

C. PIM (Privileged Identity Management)

D. MFA

Answer: C. PIM (Privileged Identity Management)

Q4. What does MFA stand for in Microsoft identity services?

A. Multi-Functional Account

B. Multi-Factor Authentication

C. Managed Federation Account

D. Manual Federation Access

Answer: B. Multi-Factor Authentication

Q5. Which Azure AD role allows managing all aspects of identity protection and governance?

A. Global Administrator

B. User Administrator

C. Compliance Administrator

D. Security Reader

Answer: A. Global Administrator